Currently, Three Wire Winter is in its tenth year and consists of 13 students and 2 advisors. This is the 20th issue, once again containing interesting history and accomplishments of mainly locals in the Routt County area. The project began in 1975 and became incorporated into a non-profit organization in 1978. We welcome all letters, subscriptions and donations, which, by the way, are tax deductible. To contact us, purchase or renew a subscription, please write:
